Informatica Announces the Release of its 2024 Transparency Report: A Testament to a 35-Year Legacy of Excellence

Charting Our Commitment to Data Integrity, Privacy, and Security

Toronto, Canada, February 7, 2024 – For over three decades, Informatica has been at the forefront of delivering high-value services to Canadian organizations, empowering them to stay competitive in an ever-evolving landscape. Today, we are proud to announce the publication of our 2024 Transparency Report, reflecting our unwavering commitment to data integrity, information protection, and knowledge transfer.

Operating in accordance with the Canons of our Code of Professional Ethics, Informatica has consistently upheld the highest standards of integrity. We extend this commitment to our partners and suppliers, fostering a culture of trust and ethical conduct throughout our ecosystem.

While not publicly traded, Informatica adheres to the highest levels of confidentiality, integrity, and availability, aligning with Regulation (EU) No 537/2014 of the European Parliament and Council. This commitment ensures that our enterprise clients and government agencies transact with our brands with the utmost trust and confidence.

Informatica's evidence-based processes rely on verifiability, auditability, and systematic alignment with industry standards across all our lines of business. This spans training and e-learning (SCORM-compliant education), industrial cybersecurity (UL2900, NERC CIP, IEC62443), information risk assessment (ISO 27001, PCI DSS, NIST CSF), and privacy compliance (PIPEDA, GDPR, CPRA).

The 2024 Transparency Report serves as a comprehensive documentation of our dedication to transparency, accountability, and adherence to industry best practices. It provides stakeholders with an insight into our organizational structure, governance, and the meticulous quality controls that underscore our operations.

"We believe in fostering trust through openness and accountability," said Claudiu Popa, Informatica President. "This report reflects our commitment to maintaining the highest ethical standards, ensuring that our clients and partners can rely on us for their data needs with complete confidence."
